The Committee shall, subject to limitations imposed by applicable legal and regulatory requirements, exercise all powers and authority of the Board when the Board is not in session, except that the Committee shall not have power or authority to (1) reinstate or declare a dividend; (2) authorize the issuance of equity or debt securities other than in the ordinary course of business; (3) authorize the repurchase of equity securities; (4) authorize, or recommend to unitholders, the sale of assets of the Company, unless such sale was previously approved by the Board; (5) amend or terminate that certain Disposition Agreement, dated October 30, 2019, among the Company, MIC Ohana Corporation and Macquarie Infrastructure Management (USA) Inc. or any successor agreement thereto; or (6) act on any matters that under the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, the Company’s Certificate of Formation or Limited Liability Company Agreement cannot be delegated by the Board to a committee of the Board. The Committee may be delegated specific actions and authority from time to time by the full Board.

The Committee is governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings in person or by telephone or other similar communications equipment), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any action taken and any determination made by the Committee must be approved by a majority of the independent members of the Committee. Unless so approved, any such action or determination shall have no force or effect.

The Committee may invite members of management or others to its meetings as it deems appropriate.

If at a meeting of the Committee a majority of members, including a majority of the independent members, believes that any matter under consideration should be referred to the full Board for consideration, such matter shall be referred, and the Committee shall not act on such matter.

If, at a meeting of the Committee, a majority of the independent members believes that a matter should be considered by the Committee, such matter shall be considered and acted upon by the Committee.
